ForWord International / KICKRiCKulum were birthed in 2001 by Brad and Kathy Miller. KICKRiCKulum's vision is to provide curriculum with solid biblical content that is fresh, flexible and fun, and usable by churches of any size and budget. These objectives continue to be the primary motivation in creating KICKRiCKulum. The Millers have been involved in church leadership and ministry to children in both church and secular education for over 25 years. Tabernacle II was co-authored by Michele' Triplett, co-founder of Creative for Kids, a company specializing in themed environment design for children's spaces. Michele' has been working with children of all ages since 1989, as both a children's pastor, teacher, and writer.
